FRAUD INVESTIGATOR

$3,180 - $4,807

*(This salary has been revised to reflect the pay increase)

The California Department of Insurance Fraud Division is seeking experienced investigators to conduct felony criminal investigations of insurance fraud. These positions may be open in one of the Division's Regional Offices in Fresno, San Jose, Martinez, Sacramento, City of Commerce, Orange, Rancho Cucamonga, and San Diego.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Fraud Investigators conduct felony criminal investigations of insurance fraud and related penal statutes, both State and Federal. Fraud Investigators make arrests, interrogate suspects, interview witnesses, work with informants, prepare comprehensive written reports and utilize sophisticated surveillance and electronic evidence gathering equipment. Fraud Investigators are expected to work undercover and testify as expert witnesses for prosecutors in State and Federal courts. Fraud Investigators must work unusual hours on short notice and also travel throughout the state. Applicants with prior fraud investigation experience are encouraged to apply.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- ▶ Possession of a degree from a four year college with a major in criminal justice, law enforcement or criminology; or
- ▶ Minimum of two years of peace officer experience in a criminal investigative assignment in a government agency and two years of college. (only Peace Officer status as defined in Sections 830.1, 830.2, 830.3, and 830.8 of the California Penal Code will be considered*);

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

- | | |
|--|---|
| ▶ Investigative experience working with prosecutors; | ▶ Above average report writing ability; |
| ▶ Excellent communication skills; | ▶ Task Force experience; |
| ▶ Ability to work long and arduous hours; | ▶ Fluency in any of the following languages: |
| ▶ Basic computer skills; | Russian Vietnamese, Armenian, Spanish, Laotian, Tagalog, and Middle Eastern dialects. |

WHO MAY APPLY: Applications will be accepted from current state employees with current or past Peace Officer status (*as defined in Sections 830.1, 830.2, 830.3, and 830.8 of the California Penal Code) at the Fraud Investigator level or within transfer range, or from persons with list eligibility. Training and Development assignments may be considered for certain classifications only if necessitated for recruitment purposes. SROA and surplus candidates with Peace Officer status are encouraged to apply. All applications will be reviewed. However, only the most qualified candidates will be interviewed. Applicants must clearly indicate basis of their eligibility, including SROA, surplus, reemployment status, or list eligibility, or Training and Development assignment on the State application.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Send a completed standard State of California application to Inez Armstrong, Department of Insurance, Human Resources Management, 300 Capitol Mall, 13th Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814. Please reference "Fraud Investigator, #186-7539-xxx" and job location preference. If interested in more than one job location, please list all locations on one application form. If you have previously filed an application for Fraud Investigator, please refile an updated application to be considered. For more information, call (916) 492-3271.

FINAL FILING DATE: UNTIL FILLED

NOTE: Law enforcement experience gained while working patrol assignments or while working in a penal institution supervising incarcerated persons is not considered qualifying peace officer experience for the position of Fraud Investigator.
